

Protest Against Multinational Terrorism

From Video "The Cost of a Coke" by Matt Beard; see video at www.KillerCoke.org

When/Cuando: Tuesday, July 22, 2008

Time/Hora: 3:00 p.m. at 711 5th Avenue
Protest begins at Coca-Cola and will later march to Oxy Petroleum.

Where/Donde: Coca-Cola, Allen & Co. 711 5th Avenue, (between 55th & 56th St)
Coca-Cola's building houses Allen & Company whose President & CEO Herbert Allen and Chairman Donald Keough (former president & Chief Operating Officer of The Coca-Cola Co.) are two of Coca-Cola's top policymakers and serve on Coke's board of directors.

OXY Petroleum;

1230 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 800, (between 48th & 49th Streets)

This protest is in support of the Multinational Tribunal taking place on July 21, 22 and 23 in Colombia concerning the Crimes Against Humanity committed by transnational corporations in different sectors of the economy.

Esta protesta es en apoyo a el Tribunal contra las multinacionales que se esta llevando a cabo en Colombia el 21, 22, y 23 de Julio con respecto a los crímenes de lesa humanidad cometidos por transnacionales en diferentes sectores de la economía.

Sponsored by: Comuner@s, Cispes, Wetlands Activism Center, Grass Roots Haiti, Trade Justice NYC Metro

For more information: comuneras.eros@gmail.com, (212) 561-0645